Schomburg and Sullivan's Animal Stolen and Left by Negro in Jackson Ward.

After having been driven about the city nearly all day, a horse and buggy belonging to Schomburg & Sullivan, real estate agents of No. 4 North Tenth Street, were found last night at Third and Jackson Streets in a vacant lot and taken to Billey's Stables. The horse showed the signs of long travel. A lather of perspiration streamed down his flanks, and he was weak from hard punishment. One tire had also been badly damaged.

Left outside the real estate office, the horse had been driven off by some negro urchin, as is frequently done. Mr. Sullivan was much wrought up over the affair. Stealing rides in this way has lately given great annoyance to owners of horses and buggies and has been a great source of trouble to the police, who are asked to look for them. Recently a negro boy took a horse and buggy and gave his best girl a ride through the precincts of Jackson Ward. He was captured, and was severely dealt with in the Police Court.

GAVE CLEVER MUSICAL

Mrs. Brockenbrough's Class Shows Results of Musical Training.

The commencement exercises of Mrs. Smith Brockenbrough's music class was held last evening at No. 111 East Cary Street, when the final musical of the season's series was given by her pupils.

The parents and friends of many of the performers were present, and expressed their sincere pleasure at the splendid results of Mrs. Brockenbrough's teaching by endorsing several of the numbers, the work of Miss Jane Cushman being especially appreciated.

Mrs. Brockenbrough is the sister of Mr. John Powell, who is now giving a series of piano recitals abroad, and who received his early training from her. The work of Mrs. Brockenbrough's class reflected the dominating influence of the same mastery training that did so much for her talented brother, showing in many ways most satisfactory results in the rendition of the following program:

Part I—Trio, "Yellow Jonquills" (Johanning), Misses Alice Angel, Margaret Lord and Emma Cooper; solo, "Lullaby," Miss Charlotte Branner; trio, "Valse" (Strauss), Misses Dorothy Haynes Smith, Virginia Bizzard and Martha Bizzard; solo, "Valse" (Jullien Pascal), Miss Margaret Camp; duo, "The Passion Flower" (Miller), Misses Nancy Wright and May Mercer; solo, "Serenade" (Schubert), Miss Maud Ainslie; quartet, overture of opera, "Marriage of Figaro" (Mozart); first piano, Miss Charlotte Jones; second piano, Miss Katharine Rhoads; Miss E. Brockenbrough.

Part II—Solo, "Hunting Song" (Mendelssohn), Miss Ellen Smith; duo, "Serenade" in A major (Pierne), Misses Mary Nicholas Ainslie and Maud Ainslie; solo, "Il Trovatore" (Verdi-Rossini), Miss Charlotte Jones; solo, "Mazurka" (Godard), Miss de Grammont-Robertson; solo (a), Etude (Czerny), (b), "Spinning Song" (Mendelssohn), Miss Jane Cushman; solo, "Mazurka," Op. 33, No. 4 (Chopin), Miss Louise Camp; quartet, "Merry Wives of Windsor" (Grove), Misses Charlotte Jones, Louise Camp, Miss Ellen Smith; second piano, Miss Jane Cushman, Miss Bessie Schuman.

LOST SKIRT AND WEPT

Woman Appeals to Magistrate and the Two Shed Tears Together.

"Yassir, dat man done stole my $5 skirt, an' dis is all I got. See dis here everyday skirt, what I done wore for de las' ten years," and the woman, whose face was black, but seemed with kindness, started weeping on Squire Burdette's shoulder in the Second Station last night. The magistrate stepped back several feet, and quietly brushed a tear from his eye. "Stole your Sunday-go-to-meetin' skirt?" he whimpered. "The second one! Know his name?"

"Yassir, dat 'protectives' done got my skirt out a pawnshop, but I can't git hit, for dey wants hit as evidence, and he done let 'em," and the tears started flowing afresh.

"Better wait until he comes back, and then we'll get him," said the justice of the peace kindly, wiping a tear from the other eye.

"You see, hit was dis way," said the woman. "Dat feller done dream dat his cousin stole his clothes, an' den he come an' stole my skirt. Is dat any reason why he should steal my skirt cos' somebody gon'er steal his clothes, an' he jus' a dreamin'?"

"Can't see it to save my life," said the magistrate, "but wait, we'll get him before he steals your blouse, too." The woman departed comforted.

FIGHTING FOR LIFE

Black-and-Tan Delegates to Contest Seats of the Lily Whites.

The four delegates-at-large chosen by the kicking, or Anti-Administration, Republican Convention held here recently, left for Chicago last night to lay their claims before the committee on credentials of the national convention. From all that can be learned, however, the delegates of the regular organization named by the Lynchburg convention, who will leave here Saturday night, will have little or no trouble in being seated. The latter were elected under all the forms of party organization and irregularity. This is not disputed by the kicking delegation, and its claim to recognition lies in the contention that the Lynchburg convention drew the color line, which was out of accord with the principles of the Republican party. It is not thought that the contest will amount to much, and it appears as if the regular delegation will be seated.

BOARD OF PHARMACY

Committee to Make Full Report on General Laws To-Day.

In pursuance of an act of Legislature concerning the sale of cocaine and other poisonous drugs, the State Board of Pharmacy will meet at the Capitol to-day to consider a report which has been formulated by a committee of the board putting the new statutes into effect. Mr. T. A. Miller, of this city, is chairman, and the report will be presented by him. The meeting will be held in the Capitol Building, and hearings will be given to all druggists and merchants who wish to appear and offer suggestions.

It is the opinion of the members of the board that the passage of this act will aid materially in preventing the sale of cocaine and impure drugs throughout the State.

MANY DELEGATES HERE

Funeral Benefit Association Opens Its Session To-Day.

Mr. L. R. Smith, chairman of the local committee, will call to order the twenty-seventh annual convention of the Funeral Benefit Association of the United States in the auditorium of the Young Men's Christian Association this morning at 9 o'clock. After the opening prayer by Rev. C. H. Galloway, Mr. T. Gray Haddon will welcome the visitors on behalf of the local committee and Mayor McCarthy will speak for the city.

The majority of the 250 delegates arrived yesterday, and reported at headquarters at the Richmond Hotel. From the amount of business to come before the convention it is probable that the session will last well into the night. The plan is to clear the calendar to-day so the members may return to their homes to-morrow.

GOES TO GRAND JURY

On a charge of selling cocaine, Julia Holmes, colored, was sent on to the grand jury from Police Court yesterday morning. Cocaine was found in her possession, and Policemen Tomlinson, Lear and Farley, who made the arrest, found, they believe, incriminating evidences of her guilt in her home.

Meat to be Higher.

CHICAGO, June 8.—It was announced to-day by the Chicago packers that because of a shortage of cattle and of canned meats the price of beef and of canned meats will be increased. ## GIRL TELLS STORY

Gives Account of Alleged Assault by Raymond Hitchcock.

NEW YORK, June 8.—The State's case against Raymond Hitchcock, the actor, now on trial charged with mistreating fifteen-year-old Helen von Hagen, moved with expedition to-day. When court was adjourned until tomorrow by Recorder Goff, a jury had been selected and the von Hagen girl had taken the stand and recited the story of her alleged wrongs, which led to the indictment of the comedian. The jury box was led within an hour on Wednesday morning to the proceedings, and Assistant District Attorney Garvan presented an outline of the prosecution's case in ten minutes. After several witnesses had been examined, including Mrs. von Hagen, mother of Helen, who testified on examination that she had signed an affidavit in which she stated that her daughter had never been harmed by the defendant, Helen von Hagen took the stand to tell the story of her meeting with the actor and of the alleged occurrences in December, 1906, in a house on West Forty-first Street. The girl rehearsed in detail the story she told when she appeared as a witness against Hitchcock in his former trial on charges based on an alleged assault on Flora Whiston. The von Hagen girl told of their meeting in the house on West Forty-first Street, and of her alleged assault on her by Hitchcock, who she stated she was a girl companion, to the Hitchcock house in Great Neck, L. I. The witness stated that her visits to Great Neck were without incident, and it was not until she and the Whiston girl met the actor at the house on West Forty-first Street that she was mistreated, according to her testimony to-day. She further stated that the actor made an attempt to assault her and Elsie Voercks on a later visit to the same house.

MOTORMAN DISOBEYED ORDER

Evidence Indicates That This Was Cause of Fatal Wreck.

ANNAPOLIS, MD., June 8.—Coroner John Davis to-day began his investigation into the causes of the wreck on the Washington, Baltimore and Annapolis Railroad last Friday night which resulted in the death of nine persons and injuries to a score or more of others.

The jury impaneled to fix the responsibility for the act is made up of twelve residents of Annapolis. Mr. Green, State's attorney for Anne Arundel county, conducted the examination of the witnesses for the State.

Testimony was adduced tending to show that Motorman Wadsworth, in charge of the northbound engine car, was apparently acting in disobedience of orders. The train dispatchers were examined, and presented copies of the orders, which they swore were given Wadsworth when he left Annapolis on the fitted train, showing that he acted contrary to instructions. ## Wise Talks by the Office Boy

Every time an American girl registers a hotel in Europe you find a lot of Dukes, Earls and Counts and things snuffing the air for the odor of burning money. I was an American girl 'd be very frank with those guys, and say, "You foreign dudes are all right, but a Yan-kee-dood-in-do." Speaking of articles of American manufacture, we can run rings around the foreigners when it comes to making men's clothing. The materials they use are good, but the garments are void of style. To-day the cry of the young men is for novelties. They want bottle shoulder coats, with extreme full fronts, full leg trousers, made with side buckle straps. Our summer suits are young men's suits; they possess all the little knacks of style, and are thoroughly tailored, and are priced at $15.00. Our winter suits are men's suits start at $7.50 and run as high as $30.00 for American-made wools, and $35.00 for imported materials. The big thing store is at your service. You are cordially invited to call.

President and General Manager Shanahan explained in detail the rules and regulations governing the running of the street car, and the conductors and motormen supplied. The latest was adjourned until June 22d to hear testimony of the train crews who were injured.

VOLCANO IN ERUPTION

Native Flee for Safety From One of Simoon Islands.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—According to a report brought to this city by the steamer Aeon, just arrived here from Apia, Samoa, the volcano Mt. which broke out in August, 1905, on the island of Savali, one of the Samoan group, is again in violent eruption and covered a large and fertile part of the island. The volcano is situated on the coast, and the lava flow has been before the river of molten rock and taken refuge on adjoining islands. For some time after the first great eruption, the lava flow was slow and steady, and through subterranean channels to the sea, but about one month ago a fresh outburst came that devastated some of the most productive land on Savali. The flow is approaching the village of Saleaula and its inhabitants are preparing to leave.

When the Aeon left Apia nineteen days ago the lava flow had covered more than seven square miles of land and was spreading fast.

CARLIN SPEAKS AT HERNDON

Heard Last Night of Canyass by Large Crowd of Residents of This City.

HERNDON, VA., June 8.—The large hall at this place was packed to the doors to-night with a large crowd that had gathered to hear Hon. C. C. Carlin speak in behalf of his candidacy for the congressional nomination. Mr. Carlin was accompanied by a number of his supporters, arriving from Alexandria on a special train at 7:50 P. M., and proceeded at once to the hall. A short delay ensued, due to the fact that an attempt was made to arrange for a joint debate with Hon. E. L. Lindsay Gordon, who was present. Pending arrangements for a debate, which, however, was not arranged, Hon. Walter Oliver, of Fairfax, spoke in Mr. Carlin's behalf.

His remarks were well received, especially those referring to Mr. Cranford Mackey, of Alexandria, who opposed Mr. Carlin in his campaign.

As Mr. Oliver was concluding his remarks Mr. Carlin, escorted by a number of his supporters, entered the hall. He was greeted by a storm of applause. Despite the fact that he was suffering with his throat, due to overexertion in speaking, he at once began his speech. Mr. Gordon's remarks, which were reviewed at some length by Mr. Carlin, then took up the question of the affidavit of Mason Throckmorton, which he denounced as false. Mr. Throckmorton was present, but did not reply.

The meeting broke up at 1 o'clock. Mr. Carlin and party returning to Alexandria on a special train.

'SMOKING SERVICE' ON CHURCH LAWN

Governor Fort, of New Jersey, Addresses Congregation During East Orange Meeting.

EAST ORANGE, N. J., June 8.—Governor Fort, of New Jersey, was the principal speaker at a "smoking service" held on the lawn of the Hyde Park Reformed Church last night. More than 500 men, many of whom availed themselves of permission to smoke during the service, occupied places on the lawn in front of the church, at Whitley Avenue and Wilcox Place. Many automobile parties attended. The machines were lined up in two driveways in the church grounds. The men and women in the automobiles remained for the benediction.

The Rev. F. B. Pullan, pastor of the church, spoke upon "The Way Higher Up," and Governor Fort's subject was "The Real Meaning of Life in View of Eternity." He said that everything that is worth while is the result of effort of character. He urged his hearers to do everything in their power to develop not only their own characters, but also the characters of others. Mr. Pullan said after the service:

"In holding this, the first of a series of smoking services, we are not striving for sensationalism, but we believe that common sense and religion can go hand in hand. It is too warm to hold services inside a church. We shall hold them each Sunday night on the lawn. Men would smoke if they were not at the church, and there is no reason that, being upon the lawn of the church, they should not smoke if they like."

Attendance at the "smoking service" was larger than it had been recently at services in the church.
